

OBJECTIVE

I am currently pursuing my MA in Producing Film & Television at Bournemouth University.

I am interested in broadcast journalism in the electronic media and would like to specialize in either editing of programs or field reporting. I have a keen, analytical mind and possess a very thorough knowledge of most disciplines in sports.

My current course modules in the college which include Interview and Presentation techniques,

Writing for TV & Video, Understanding Video Technology & Editing, and Camera & Lighting

Workshops (on at present) have given me a thorough understanding of the theoretical aspects of working in the electronic media.
